A FOREWORD FROM OUR HEAD CHEF

A FOREWORD FROM OUR HEAD CHEF

Embark on a culinary odyssey across France with Chef Romain at Entier. Each bite is a delicious tribute to his personal journey, a love letter to his homeland, and a testament to his exceptional talent.

A city celebrated for its deep-rooted culinary heritage, Lyon is where Chef Romain's passion for gastronomy first ignited and where he honed his craft at the prestigious Paul Bocuse Institute. A true symbol of French culinary tradition, Chef Romain's Pâté Croûte is a hearty reflection of his mastery of precision and restraint, its golden crust encasing a pâté that is delicately seasoned and impeccably balanced.

In northeastern France, a brief yet memorable stop in Alsace introduced Chef Romain to the comforting depth of Soupe à l'Oignon. Inspired by its rustic warmth, Entier's Onion & Emmental reimagines the classic with traditional techniques and thoughtful touches, offering comfort with a refined edge.

Travel south to sun-drenched Provence, where Chef Romain learned the secrets of Caille aux Raisins, a simple yet soul-stirring quail dish from his grandmother. Our Quail echoes this tradition and celebrates the enduring warmth of family recipes.

Finally, we arrive in Normandy, home to the iconic Mont Saint-Michel, a region known for its coastal bounty and rich dairy heritage. Chef Romain's take on Sole Meunière captures the essence of Normandy—fresh sole gently pan-fried in butter and finished with a hint of lemon, reflecting the region's love for honest flavours and simple elegance.

Each bite at Entier is an invitation to embark on a journey through Chef Romain's memories, his inspirations, and his unwavering passion for the culinary arts.

Veuve Clicquot

The champagne house was founded in 1772by Philippe Clicquot, a fabric merchant in Reims. Daughter in law, Barbe Nicole Ponsardin Clicquot (Madame Cliquot), driven by her uncompromising vision and her inventive spirit, created the first known vintage champagne in 1810. Veuve Clicquot is defined by its quest for excellence, love of the finest grape variety Pinot Noir, and mastery of the art of aging.
